

Welcome

Imagination, story, colour and especially humour are the things that motivate me.

In recent times, since early 2019, my artwork has changed to become digitally coloured although usually anchored by ink line work, thus creating a more comic feel.

This coincided with the emergence of two characters:

Socket-Head, an accident prone wannabe-superhero; and Bishop Stumbers, an equally dorky personage, who creates memes and loses mitres.

2020 Winter PORTFOLIO

Bishop Stumbers — Decoding Memes

Inspired by the memes of a real person on Twitter.

Created in Adobe Photoshop from various rough sketches.

Frog fishing from a Tree-House

A fantasy concept that had been on my mind for a while.
Ink pen artwork coloured with Adobe Photoshop.

Bishop Stumbers — Skateboarding Bishop

Inspired by a combination of tweets and Youtube references.
Somebody played this Christmas music full blast while driving with passengers.

Socket-Head in Isolation

The lesser of two evils.

Putting Socket-Head in isolation for his own safety lest he destroy himself and everything else through boredom and unavoidable accidents.

Sketchbook doodle coloured in Adobe Photoshop.

Father's Day 2020

In homage to my Dad's efforts to get healthy.

Created solely in Adobe Photoshop from ballpoint pen sketches.

Inktober 2019 – Day 14 “Overgrown”

Socket-Head discovering what the caretaker would like him to do in compensation for previous damages dealt upon the property by our superhero on holiday.

Grandfather's 80th Birthday

He likes to garden wearing an old floppy hat.
Gerberas, rhubarb, camellias, oranges and grapes feature in his garden.
Final artwork created in Adobe Photoshop.

Red Fishing Boat — Wharf Sketch

This was solely produced using Adobe Photoshop.
It is concept art for a yet uncompleted 3D project.
